Product Description

Zoo Med’s natural Frog Moss can be used with frogs, toads, salamanders, garter or green snakes, and all other moss environment species. Use as a top substrate or decorative accent in vivarium/terrarium applications. Frog Moss (also called “Pillow Moss”) will come back to life and grow in proper terrarium conditions. A beautiful, decorative living moss to accent your naturalistic terrarium. Increases humidity in terrariums making it perfect for all high humidity loving species of reptiles or amphibians.

Production Process/Quality Control

Zoo Med’s Eco Earth® is natural Frog “Pillow” Moss (Dicranum scoparium) sourced from The United States of America. The product is fumigated with phosphine gas for 72 hours and is free of seeds, live insects, animal debris, and other quarantine risk material.

Packaging Materials

Zoo Med’s Frog Moss is packaged and sealed in new, clean plastic boxes.
